

Margaret Barnard
The Rowers
Permanent Collection

Beki Dickinson-Vyse Ring: gold, slate, perspex from the craft selection

easton rooms

The Easton Rooms is recognised nationally for its exciting selling exhibitions of paintings, sculpture, prints, photography, ceramics, glass, textiles, wood and metal work.

stormont studio

The Stormont Studio houses a permanent collection of 19th and 20th century fine art by artists of national and regional importance. The Stormont Studio also hosts exhibitions of new work by contemporary artists.

friends of rye art gallery

New friends are warmly welcomed, receive a regular newsletter, take an active part in fundraising, talks and events, and obtain discounts on purchases. For more details contact the FRAG Secretary at the Easton Rooms.

Easton Rooms

107 High Street, Rye, East Sussex TN31 7JE
open 10.30am–1.00pm and 2.00–5.00pm

Stormont Studio

Ockman Lane, East Street, Rye, East Sussex TN31 7JY open Wednesday to Sunday 10.30am–1.00pm and 2.00–5.00pm

T 01797 222433/223218

F 01797 225376

W www.ryeartgallery.co.uk

The Stormont Studio is staffed by volunteers, the Easton Rooms is closed on Tuesdays out of season. Please call in advance to confirm opening times.

Rye Town Council

Rye Art Gallery Trust is a Registered Charity 310318
Design by Graphic Ideas. Printed by Hastings Printing Company

exhibitions

february – august 2004

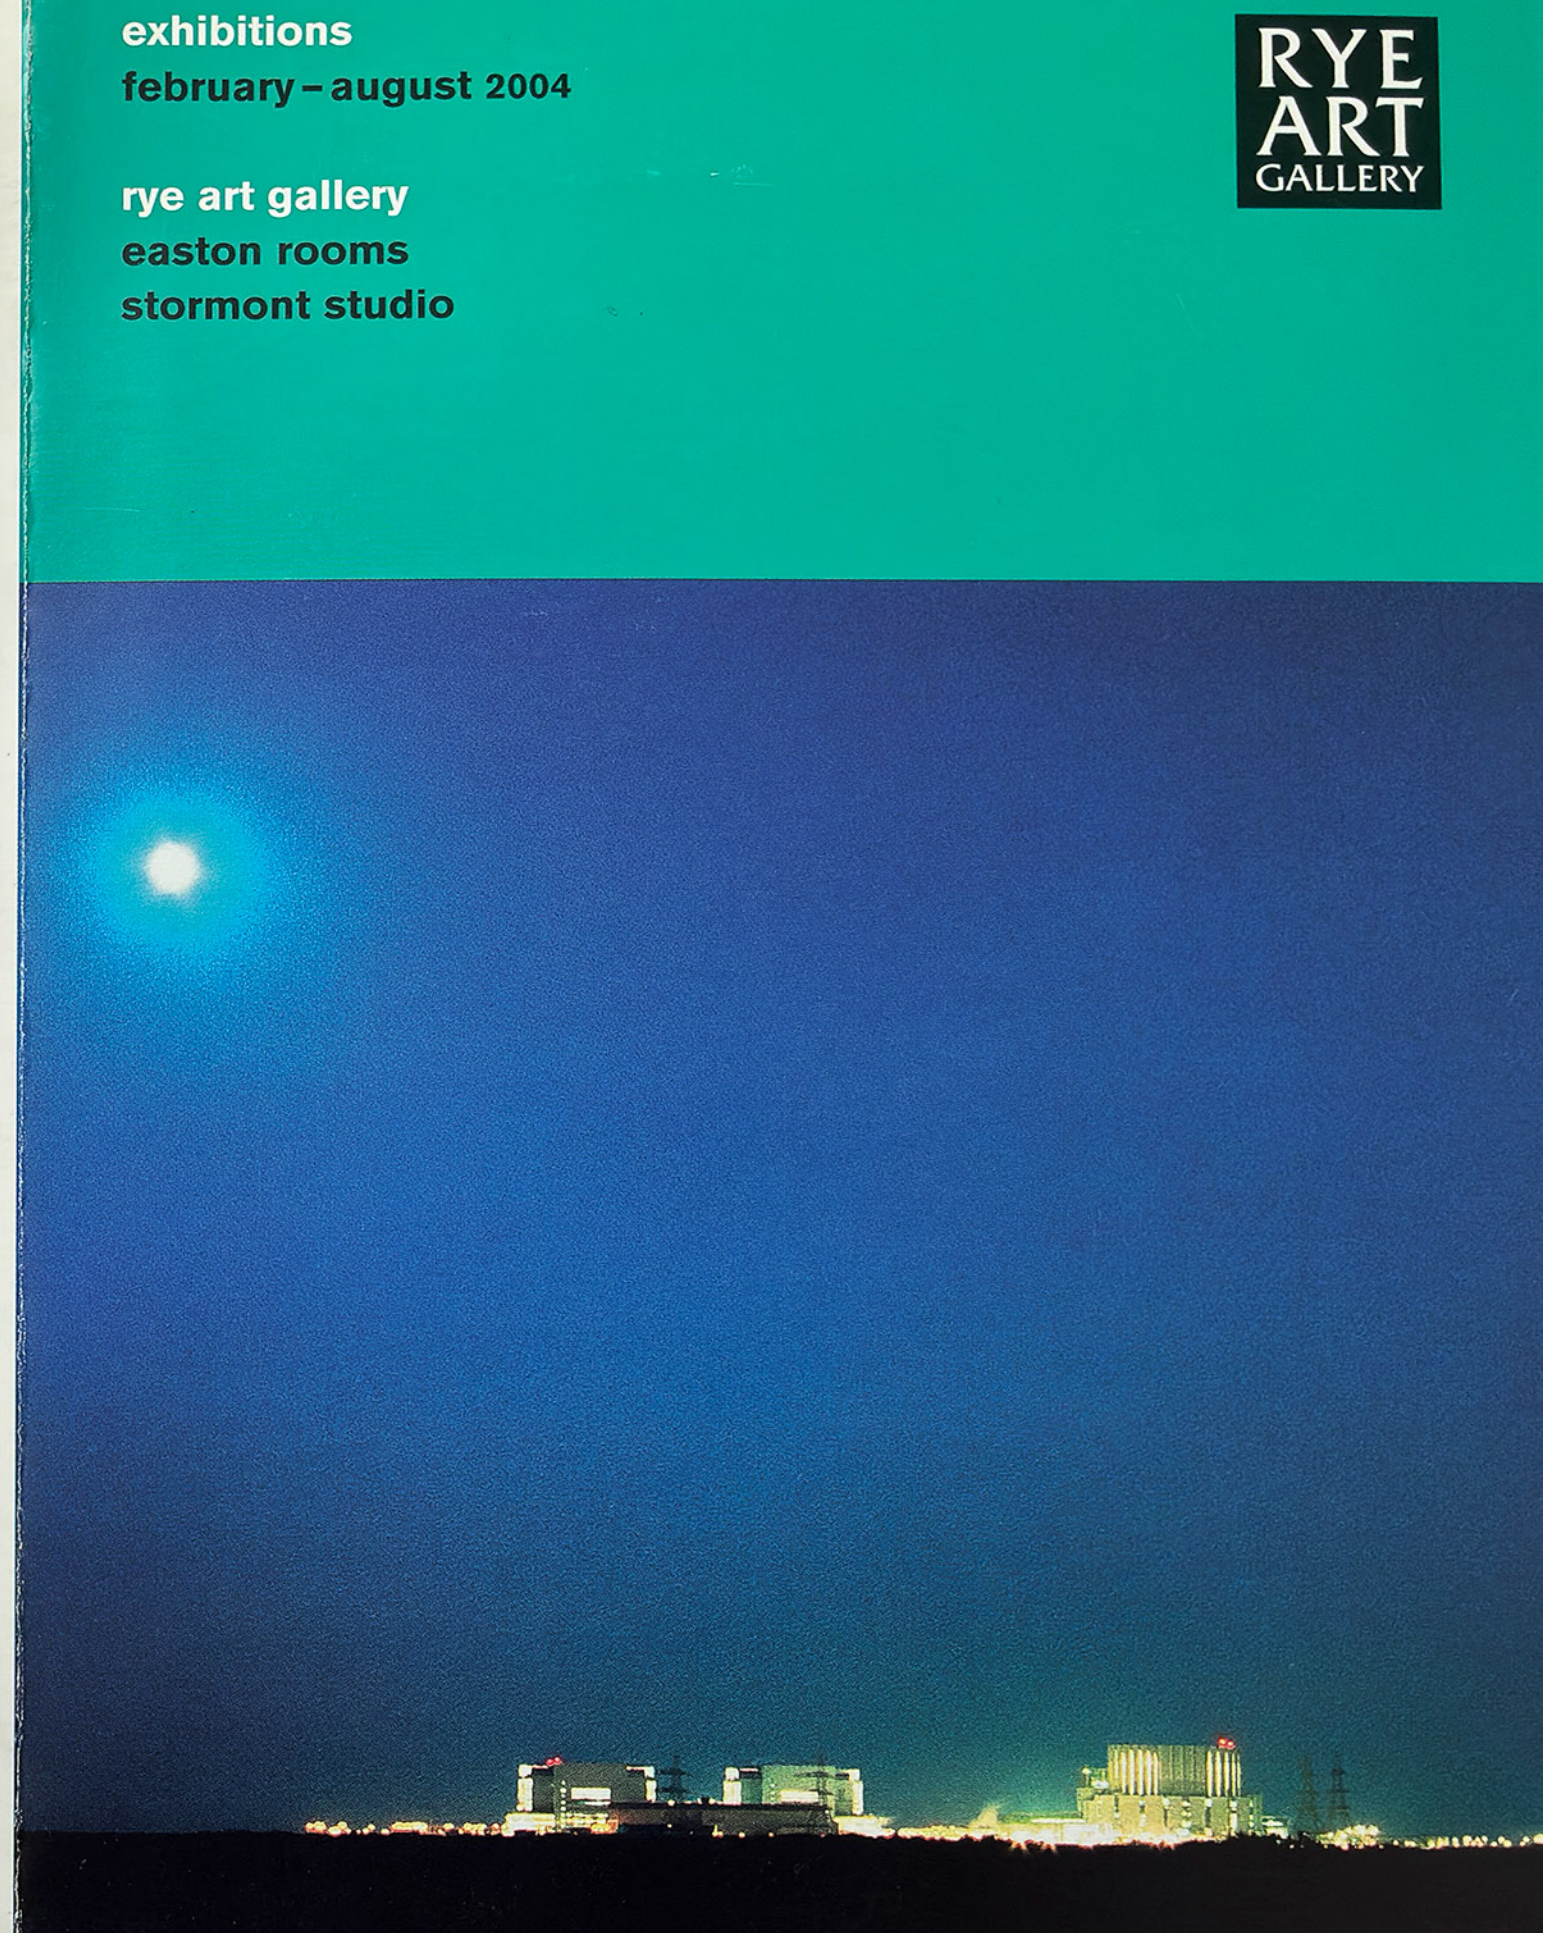

rye art gallery

easton rooms

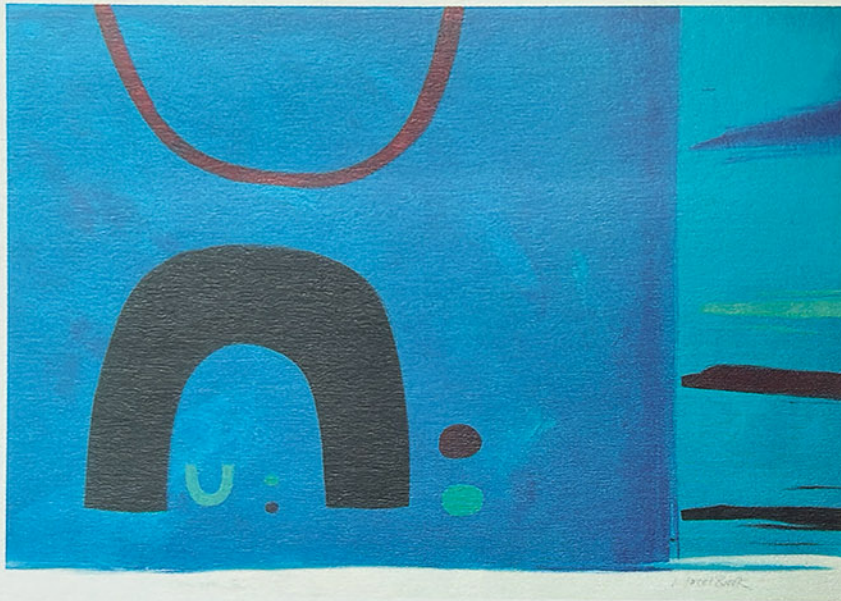

stormont studio

RYE ART GALLERY

front cover
Nigel Green
Dungeness at night

Hazel Brook
Structure III

28 February – 25 April Easton Rooms

first leap: four in one

Four artists start the season with a range of contemporary artists' prints. The exhibition features work by printmakers Hazel Brook, Sarah Marzaioli, Siobhan O'Hanlon and Jane Sandoe. A selection of craft by local makers and pieces by members of the Society of Designer Craftsmen will also be exhibited.

13 March – 16 May Stormont Studio

dungeness: photographs by nigel green

Nigel Green spent over a year photographing the strange, remote and windswept landscape of Dungeness. The resulting exhibition is an in-depth study of one of the most extraordinary places on the British coastline.

1 May – 27 June Easton Rooms

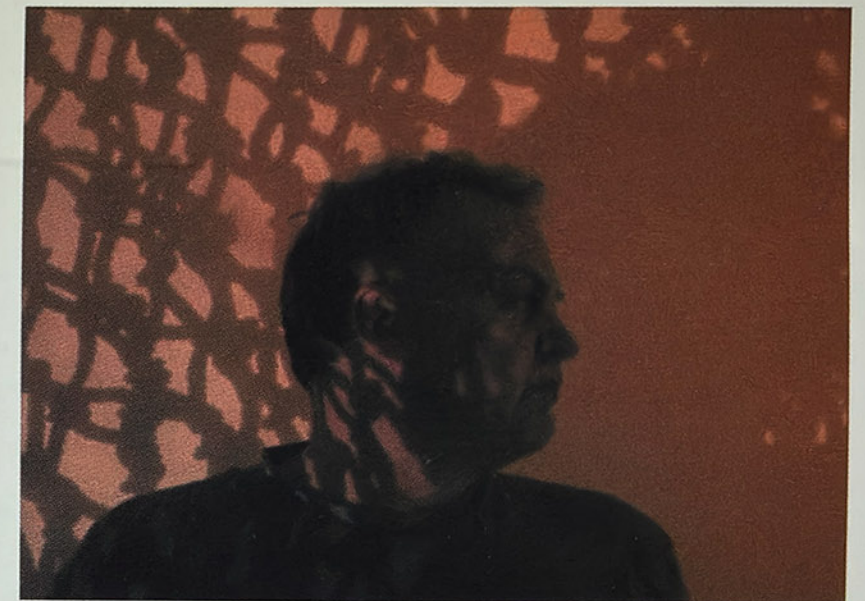

boundless: imagination and imagery

Selected artists and craftspeople have been invited to exhibit in a show which celebrates the imagination. Featured artists include Dawn Badland, Ev Meynell, Liz Akhurst, James Fergusson, Jo Townshend and many more.

Dawn Badland Untitled

Stephen Turner
Net shade

5 June – 15 August Stormont Studio

fish by stephen turner

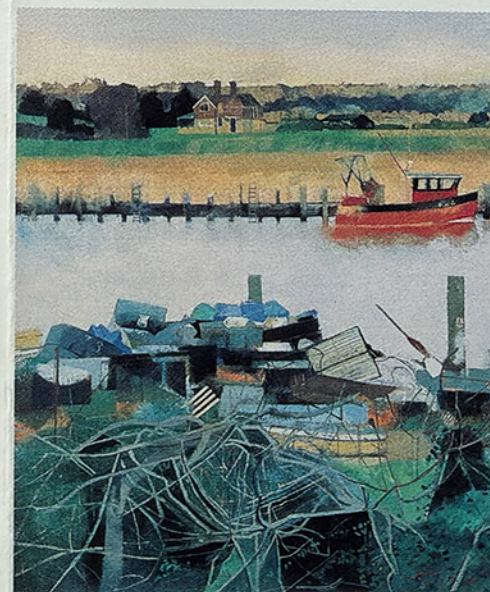

The Hole in the Sand, Shells Bank, Hooks Hard and The Mud are some of the traditional fishing places of Rye Bay. These, and the men who fish there and the fish they catch, have inspired this installation by Stephen Turner. To complement this theme, the artist is selecting a small exhibition of works drawn from the collection of the Towner Gallery and Hastings Museum, as well as that of the Stormont Studio and Rye Castle Museum.

3 July – 29 August Easton Rooms

hello sunshine

Enjoy the sunshine in the gallery even when it's raining outside... work from a range of artists and craftspeople which relates to themes of summer. Artists including Louis Turpin and Richard Adams will be exhibiting alongside artists new to the gallery.

There will be a series of workshops for children through the Easter and summer holidays, please contact Jillian Eldridge for details on 01797 252894

Louis Turpin
Rye Harbour